

Laura Kellers Queen, Ed.D.

Laura is the Founder and CEO of 29Bison a Human Capital advisory firm focused on buy- and sell-side due diligence, business optimization, and post-transaction integration services. She and her team align business and people strategies for accelerated growth, conduct due diligence, and provide merger integration, succession planning, cultural alignment, and organizational restructuring to businesses undergoing major transitions.

She has more than 25 years of experience as a business leader in Human Resources and Administration. She was previously the Chief Human Resources Officer (CHRO) of G&W Laboratories, Inc. and the Vice President of Human Resources and Administration at Teva Pharmaceuticals, Inc. She has extensive experience in Merger & Acquisition (M&A) due diligence and post-merger integration and divestiture, performance consulting, and executive coaching.

She has held various leadership roles in the life sciences, retail, and semi-conductor industries, and in the public sector. Her early career centered on finance and service administration.

Laura has been the Mentorship Advisor for and a former member of the Advisory Board of the Healthcare Businesswoman's Association's (HBA) Greater Philadelphia Chapter, Chairman of the Leadership Advisory Council for Moravian College, and is a Consortia member of the Center for Positive Organizations at the Ross School, University of Michigan.

She has a Doctorate in Human and Organizational Learning from The George Washington University (Washington, DC), an MSA in Human Resources Administration from West Chester University (West Chester, PA) and a BA in Industrial Organizational Psychology from Moravian College (Bethlehem, PA).

Laura is a passionate speaker and entrepreneur, focused on increasing enterprise value in through human capital. Your audience will find her approachable storytelling style and deep technical expertise truly engaging.