Carolyn is a Partner in Wiggin and Dana's Private Client Services Department in the Greenwich and New York offices. Carolyn has more than 25 years of experience servicing affluent individuals, their closely held companies and family offices with a focus on international estate and tax planning.

Immediately before joining Wiggin and Dana, Carolyn was a Partner at a leading international law firm, where she was integral in all aspects of trust and estate planning and administration. Carolyn was also responsible for the creation and management of public charities and private foundations.

Previously, Carolyn was Managing Director at J.P. Morgan Private Bank in Greenwich, CT, where she was primarily a Wealth Advisor for affluent clients and family offices. She maintained a focus on the firm's largest hedge fund principal clients and prospects, CEOs of public and private companies and international families.

Carolyn has written on various topics including trusts and estates and charitable planning.

Carolyn earned her J.D. from Georgetown University, and her B.A., summa cum laude, from Boston College.
